

Second Annual PILON Cybercrime Workshop Agenda

Combatting Online Child Abuse in the Pacific

Empowering communities to work together to deter, detect and prosecute online child abuse and cyberbullying

Day 1, Tuesday 12 June—Challenges and responses to online child abuse

08:30	Arrival and Registration
09:00	Opening Ceremony
09:30	Group photo and morning tea
10:15	Welcome by PILON Cybercrime Working Group Chair 'Aminiasi Kefu, Acting Attorney General and Director of Public Prosecutions, Kingdom of Tonga
10:45	Creating a safe and positive online environment Examining the nature of the problem of child abuse and cyberbullying and designing a response Paul Griffiths, Victim Identification Manager, Queensland Police Service
11:30	The Budapest Convention as framework for combatting online child abuse Cosmina Menghes, Senior Project Officer, Council of Europe, and Catherine Smith, Expert, Council of Europe
12:15	Workshop overview and the way ahead Jennifer Hyatt, International Legal Assistance, Australian Attorney-General's Department
12:30	Lunch
13:30	Cyber safety and community awareness Empowering the community to have positive experiences online Glyn Lewis, Vanuatu Australia Policing and Justice Program, Australian Federal Police, and Alex Ash, Australian Office of the eSafety Commissioner
14:30	Afternoon tea
15:00	The role of telecommunications and social media in combatting online child abuse and bullying Catherine Smith, Expert, Council of Europe (Chair), Jeff Wu, Facebook, Peter Froelich, Telstra, Tonga Communications Cooperation, and Digicel
17:00	Close

Evening workshop event organised by Tonga

Day 2, Wednesday 13 June — Investigating online child abuse

- 08:30 Re-cap and planning
- 08.45 Pacific Perspectives – country overviews
Each country delegation to provide a 5 minute overview of their experiences with online child abuse and cyberbullying, including recent cases and investigative challenges they have experienced
- 10:00 Morning tea
- 10:30 Criminalising child abuse – legislative challenges and cyberspace
Nathan Whiteman and Janine McFarlane, Australian Attorney-General's Department, and Stephanie J. Lister, Deputy Criminal Chief Project Safe Childhood, CyberCrime & National Security Coordinator, U.S. Attorney's Office
- 11:30 Law enforcement experiences in investigating child abuse online
Glyn Lewis, Australian Federal Police, and Paul Griffiths, Queensland Police Service
- 12:30 Lunch
- 13:30 Unpacking technology to investigate online crime
Taking a look at what 'off the shelf' investigative products are available and how they can assist
Gordana Vujisic, INTERPOL Crimes against Children Unit, and Paul Griffiths, Queensland Police Service
- 14:30 PRACTICAL SESSION 1: Gathering the evidence and constructing the case
Facilitated group discussion examining the criminal conduct, investigative challenges, and how to present complex digital information to prosecutors as a part of a brief
Group A Leader: Detective Sergeant Damian Rapira-Davies
Group B Leader: Paul Griffiths
Group C Leader: Colm Gannon and Gordana Vujisic
- 15:30 Afternoon tea
- 16:00 Practical Group Work: Case study focus
Participants to work in groups on an assigned case study to identify key witnesses and sources of evidence, how to take action to secure evidence, and develop a brief for prosecution. Groups will present their findings on Friday
All speakers to be roving mentors
- 16:45 Reflections and reporting back
Teams to report back on what they have learned, what more they need to find out about.
Facilitated by Jonelle Lancashire, Pacific Islands Chiefs of Police
- 17:00 Close

Day 3, Thursday 14 June — Prosecuting online child abuse

- 08:45 Re-cap and planning
- 09.00 Pacific Perspectives – unpacking online child abuse investigations
A facilitated session allowing Pacific jurisdictions to share their experiences in greater depth
'Aminiasi Kefu, Acting Attorney General and Director of Public Prosecutions, Kingdom of Tonga (Chair), Salote Tagivakatini, Nauru Police Force, other Pacific participants TBC, and Jonelle Lancashire, Pacific Islands Chiefs of Police
- 10:30 Morning tea
- 11:00 International law enforcement cooperation to combat child exploitation and abuse
The importance of international cooperation, and some of the successes, pitfalls and challenges from a law enforcement perspective
Nathan Whiteman, International Law Enforcement Cooperation, Australian Attorney-General's Department, Detective Sergeant Damian Rapira-Davies, Cybercrime Investigations, New Zealand Police.

11:45	Advocacy skills Advocacy strategies, how to prepare and present sensitive materials to court, question vulnerable witnesses and safeguard the mental health of officials involved in preparing the matter for court Stephanie J. Lister, U.S. Attorney's Office, and Jon Emmett, Senior Federal Prosecutor, Commonwealth Director of Public Prosecutions
12:30	Lunch
13:30	PRACTICAL SESSION 2: Preparing for Court Evidentiary requirements and presentation, digesting a brief and categorising child abuse material Group A Leader: Jon Emmett Group B Leader: Stephanie J. Lister Group C Leader: Nathan Whiteman
14:30	Practical Group Work: Case study focus Participants to continue working together in groups on their case study, focusing on how to develop their case for court All speakers to be roving mentors
15:00	Afternoon tea
15:30	Practical Group Work: Preparing case study presentations Groups to finalise presentations on their case study, identifying key findings, challenges and lessons learned All speakers to be roving mentors
16:45	Reflections and reporting back Teams to report back on what they have learned, what more they need to find out about Facilitated by Jennifer Hyatt, Australian Attorney-General's Department
17:00	Close

Day 4, Friday 15 June—The role of the Pacific in combatting online child abuse

09:00	Re-cap and planning
09:15	Information Exchange &amp; Victim Identification How Pacific countries can contribute to the broader response to combatting online child abuse, including referral of images to international databases Gordana Vujisic, INTERPOL, and Paul Griffiths, Queensland Police Service
10:15	Morning tea
10:45	Presenting the result: Group case study presentations Each to group present their assigned case study and findings to the Workshop, identifying key findings, challenges and lessons learned Arbiters: Jon Emmett and Stephanie J. Lister
12:00	Lunch
13:00	Creating a whole of government response to combat online child abuse Catherine Smith, Expert, Council of Europe, and Senior Inspector Colm Gannon, Digital Child Exploitation Team, New Zealand Department of Internal Affairs
14:00	Developing a forward leaning response in the Pacific Facilitated opportunity for jurisdictions to identify what key steps they may take to strengthen their ability to combat online child abuse 'Aminiasi Kefu, Acting Attorney General and Director of Public Prosecutions, Kingdom of Tonga
14:45	Completion of feedback surveys
15:15	Close