

Mutual Legal Assistance: Electronic Evidence and Cybercrime Webinar Agenda

2 December 2020

Time: 15:00 Samoa time (GMT +14)

Location: online, via Zoom

Time	Agenda item	Speaker
15:00	Introduction and opening remarks	Chair
15:05	Overview of Mutual Legal Assistance, the process and advice on making a request	First speaker: Merran Cooke, Crown Counsel and Mutual Assistance Coordinator, New Zealand Crown Law
15:20	The importance of Mutual Legal Assistance to criminal investigations and prosecutions involving cybercrime and the gathering of electronic evidence	Second speaker: Kilby Baker, Senior Legal Officer, Mutual Assistance, Attorney-General's Department Australia
15:35	MA case study: to be confirmed	Merran Cooke
15:45	MA case study: romance scam and obtaining Yahoo content records	Kilby Baker
15:55	Q&A from Slid-o (pre-sent questions)	Both speakers answering
16:15	Webinar concludes	Chair

Contacts

At PILON:	In Australia:
Sasae WALTER	Louise BARTHOLOMEW
Secretariat Coordinator	Acting Director and Senior Legal Officer
PILON Secretariat	Pacific Section
Apia, Samoa	Attorney-General's Department
coordinator@pilonsec.org	Louise.bartholomew@ag.gov.au
	Laura HUGH
	Legal Officer
	Pacific Section
	Attorney-General's Department
	Laura.hugh@ag.gov.au

Administrative arrangements and location

Due to COVID-19, the webinar will be held remotely via Zoom. Participants are invited to register at: <https://zoom.us/meeting/register/tJwodeyhrjorHNPh7cr0EVwZvb5wfXKxgbMH>. Participants are invited to ask their questions about Mutual Assistance, Cybercrime and Electronic Evidence before the scheduled webinar time, via Slid-o by going to the following website: www.slido.com and searching using the event code #PILONMLAWebinar to submit questions. During the webinar, participants will be able to submit any further questions they may have through the Zoom 'chat' function.